HALF WAY MARK IS REACHED IN "CHEST" CAMPAIGN

Endurance Fliers Remain Aloft In Record Trial

MONOPLANE NOW PAST 120-HOUR MARK IN TEST

Two Pilots Report All Is Well Aboard Airplane

PASS RECORD OF ZEPPELIN FLIGHT

One Aviator Has Flown For But Six Months; Was Cowboy

Fort Worth, Texas, May 24.—Flying the monoplane "Fort Worth," Big Robbins andd Jim Kelley had been aloft over 125 hours at 1 p. m. today in their attempt to break the refueling endurance record of the army plane "the question mark." The twelfth refueling was made early today when 110 gallons of gasoline, mail, and oil were delivered to the pilots.

Late yesterday an accident occurred during the refueling and about 10 gallons of gasoline was spilled.

Undaunted by their failure, the "Fort Worth" and the refueling ship made contact again and the transfer of gas was made without difficulty. The refueling ship is handled by K. K. Hoffman and H. S. Jones.

Slowly edging toward victory, the Fort Worth passed the record of the Graf Zeppelin at 3:04 a. m. when it passed the 111 1-2 hours that the giant dirigible was in the air in its transatlantic flights. "Fort Worth" with the exception of the "question mark" which stayed aloft 150 hours, 40 minutes and 15 seconds.

Writing Air Epic

Should Robbins and Kelly win, another epic in the history of aviation will have been written. The bold challenge of the young Texans for the supremacy of the air has attracted nation-wide attention and encouraging telegrams have been received from many parts of the country.

Six months ago Jim Kelley, 23, ex-pilot, was punching cattle on a west Texas ranch. Occasionally a plane droned over, and fired with imagination, he came to Fort Worth to enlist in the flying school. He was graduated in February and has been employed by a commercial aviation concern since that time.

Robbins has had several years experience as a flyer, he is 26, married, and formerly worked as a mechanic in a railroad shop.

Kelley married about six weeks ago, and Robbins has constantly twitted him, in notes dropped from their plane.

"Sure is hard on Kelley. We just had one love magazine and Kelley read that twice," Robbins said.

CORONER ENDS CLINIC INQUIRY

Report Will Be Ready In Week; Questions X-ray Expert

Cleveland, May 24.—Coroner A. J. Pearse announced today that he had completed questioning of witnesses in the Cleveland clinic disaster of May 15, which caused 125 deaths.

The coroner said he would go to Washington to confer with Maj. Gen. H. L. Gilchrist, government expert, concerning technical details within the next few days.

He said his report would not be ready for at least a week. Miss Enid Critcher, x-ray technician at the clinic, was the last witness called and gave the coroner additional information of the manner in which the x-ray films were stored. The burning films generated a lethal gas which accounted for most of the deaths.

Lisbon Father Ill Broadcast for Son

Cleveland, May 24.—An appeal for George Ball to return to his father, who is gravely ill in Lisbon, O., was broadcast here today.

A letter, addressed to a St. Clair avenue home, failed to find the missing son and was delivered to George S. Ball, of E. 70th St., who opened it and discovered that it was intended for another man.

George S. Ball spent all day yesterday calling on various addresses in a futile attempt to locate his missing namesake.

"The same thing happened to me once when my father was dying out west," he explained. "I know what the letter would mean to this George Ball and I'm going to do everything I can to find him."

FORMER MAYOR DENIES TAKING BRIBERY MONEY

Money Was Planted. He Tells Court; Wife On Stand

New Philadelphia, O., May 24.—Former Mayor Peter J. Groh, of Dover, Ohio, assumed the witness stand in his trial on liquor conspiracy charges today ,and a short time after the completion of his testimony the defense rested, indicating that the case will go to the jury of eight men and four women sometime this afternoon.

Ed Little, ex-state dry agent, and the state's star witness who obtained the evidence against Groh, was called a "dirty rat" by the former Dover official at one time during the latter's testimony.

Denies Taking Bribs.

After denying he had accepted a $50 bribe from Little and John O. Cole, another ex-state dry agent, the gray-haired former mayor charged that the pint of liquor, which he is also charged with possessing, had been "planted" in his home.

He refuted the testimony of Sam K. Beetham, deputy prohibition commissioner of Ohio, that he had admitted accepting the bribe.

Groh declared that he was in his night clothes when Little and Cole placed him under arrest, at his home. The man, the father of seven children, said that the agents would not allow him to go upstairs to dress, but that Cole went to his bedroom after his clothes.

"The money was not in my clothes when I undressed," said Groh, plainly hinting that Cole had planted the money in his clothes while carrying them downstairs.

A short time before, Groh testified, he had found the liquor. He declared that he shouted to his wife, "look what that dirty rat planted here."

Testimonoy of Irene Engler, pretty 20-year-old girl, and former waitress in the Venice Tavern, near here proved to be the highlight in the trial yesterday.

On the witness stand, the girl hesitated in her testimony frequently.

She was visibly nervous, which was marked especially when the prosecutor asked the girl if Little

MIMIC WARFARE CLAIMS LIFE OF ANOTHER VICTIM

Air Mechanic Killed When Propeller Crushes His Chest

THREE HAVE LOST LIVES IN ENCOUNTER

Plane Motor Backfires To Send Man To His Death

Columbus O., May 24.—The U. S. army mock war claimed its third casualty today.

Staff Sergeant Frank Deeman, 28, mechanic member of the 94 pursuit squadron, Selfridge Field, Mich., staticned at Norton field here during the 11-day mimic war, died in Fort Hayes army barracks hospital here this morning from injuries sustained late yesterday when a plane back-fired, sending the propeller crashing into the man's chest.

Sergeant Gerald Miller, of the same squadron, suffered a broken wrist in the accident while attempting to pull his "buddy" away from the spinning "prop."

Deeman had been with the 94 pursuit squadron of Selfridge field, for nearly four years.

Prior to that, he had served in the British Army in India as an engineer.

The mechanic suffered the fatal injuries, when he stepped up to the plane of Lt. Hines, after his first efforts to "crank" it had failed.

As he grabbed hold of the "prop" the engine reignited and backfired. The propeller struck the man over the heart.

Lt. Florin W. Shade, "crack" Selfridge field flyer, was killed

AID RUSHED TO FLOODED AREA

Fear Levees Along River Will Not Hold; Troops Held Ready

Memphis, Tenn., May 24.—Fearing the Mississippi levee at Mound's Landing, Miss., may crumble at any moment, Governor Theo G. Bilbo, Mississippi, today ordered national guardsmen be held in readiness in event of a flood. He requested 400 tents and 3,200 blankets be shipped from Fort McPherson to the danger zone.

Meanwhile government engineers, supervising the work of reinforcing the barriers, reiterated their beliefs the levee will hold. Back waters already have driven residents from Issaquena and Sharkey counties.

Mound's Landing is where the Mississippi broke from its course two years ago, flooding thousands of acres and the city of Greenville, Miss., 18 miles away.

The Yazoo and Mississippi railroad has suspended passenger service between here and Helena, Ark., because of the imminent danger.

WRECK DELAYS RAIL TRAFFIC

Rear Car Of Train Leaves Rails; Lone Passenger Signals To Engineer To Halt

New Lexington, O., May 24.—The Zanesville-Cincinnati Pennsylvania passenger train was wrecked at Del Carbo, 10 miles east of here, shortly after 8 o'clock today.

The rear coach of the train jumped the track, ran on the ties for a distance of 1,300 feet and then settled over on its side.

Only one passenger was in the coach. Glen Nichols, of Lancaster, feeling the cars leave the rails, pulled the air signal calling the engineer to stop, thereby averting the wrecking of the entire train.

Traffic will undoubtedly be held up for several hours.

Liverpool Youth Said To Have Admitted Stealing Watch From Salem Home

Bruce Kristy, 18 of East Liverpool, was bound over to grand jury on $1,000 bond on a charge of grand larceny today by Mayor Phil G. Hiddleson.

The youth was unable to furnish bond and will be taken to Lisbon to county jail for arraignment.

Joseph Riccardi, of St. Anthony's church here, was freed today after a five minute sanity hearing before probate Judge Alva L. Deal. Dr. Arthur G. Hyde, superintendent of Massillon State hospital, was the only witness.

Mrs. Guerrieri was acquitted of a first degree murder charge by a jury earlier in the week on grounds of insanity. She testified that her mind was so clouded by stories of alleged abuse of her five year old daughter in a parochial school that she did not know what she was doing at the time of the shooting which took place in the vestibule of the church, Sunday, March 17, following morning services.

R., Woman's Relief corps, Philip Triem camp No. 43, Sons of Union Veterans and auxiliary and Daughters of Union Veterans; American Legion and auxiliary and Veterans of Foreign Wars and Gold Star auxiliary will attend the Sunday morning service at the First Baptist church.

The program for the Memorial day celebration in Salem, which is being arranged by a committee composed of representatives of the patriotic organizations, will be announced the first of the week.

Speakers for the Memorial day program are Dr. P. H. Gordon, pastor of the Presbyterian church, who will speak at the morning exercises, and Rev. Charles F. Bailey, of the First Friends church, will give the afternoon address.

The morning program will be at Grandview cemetery and the afternoon exercises at Hope cemetery. Parades of patriotic organizations will precede each one.

MAYORALTY RACE IN LISBON SLOW

One Candidate Has Filed For Primaries; Democratic Entry Not Known

Liszon, May 24.—Usual apathy is noticeable in the forthcoming primary election so far as Lisbon is concerned, and only one candidate for mayor on the Republican ticket has been announced, this being George W. Bradbury. No candidates have been announced for council or other offices.

Bradbury for many years was chief bookkeeper in the office of the county auditor. He has been active as a Republican and also in the affairs of the Lisbon M. E. church.

It is probable that the Democratic party will file a single petition for all village offices at one time.

SIX-YEAR BOY SENTENCED FOR KILLING CHUM

Would Be Confined In Reformatory Until 21; Attorneys Fight

Paintsville, Ky., May 24.—Attorneys were prepared to contest in court today the 15-year reformatory sentence imposed on Carl Newton Mahan, 6 years old, after the boy had been convicted by a jury of Kentucky mountaineers of the murder of his playmate, Cecil Van Hoose, 8.

Defense counsel declared they would argue that the Kentucky statutes contain no provisions for the confinement of a child under 10 years of age in a reform institution.

Little Carl killed his slightly larger chum with a shotgun last Saturday after a quarrel over ownership of a piece of scrap iron.

Mrs. John Mahan, mother of the lad found guilty of manslaughter after the jury had deliberated only half an hour, protested that the son told her he did not know the gun, belonging to his father, was loaded.

TRESTLE FALLS, WORKER KILLED

Five Others Seriously Hurt As Car Drops Into Valley

Zanesville, O., May 24.—The collapse of the Licking View trestle of the abandoned interurban tracks of the Southern Ohio Public Service company today had caused the death of one man and serious hurts to five others.

The six workers were riding in a gondolla freight car over the trestle when it collapsed. The car was loaded with scrap iron.

They were hurled 35 feet into a valley below.

J. R. Seary, 34, suffered fatal injuries.

The others injured are: Homer Snelling, 52, foreman of the working gang; Thomas McVey, 48; Willis Harter, 36; Forest Sunkel, 25, and Edward Jones, 28, all of Newark.

Employed by the Hyman-Michaels company, of Chicago, the men were tearing up the interurban tracks, which had been abandoned by the Southern Ohio Public Service company recently.

All of the men, it is believed, sustained internal injuries. They were buried under the scrap iron as the car landed upside down, crushing the men beneath it.

TEAMS WORKING TO REACH GOAL ON SECOND DAY

Children Contribute $119 For 1929 Community Chest Fund

$12,000 IS RAISED ON OPENING DAY

Reports Submitted Last Night; Campaign To Close Tonight

Salem's 1929 Community Chest is half filled.

Team workers, meeting at the Memorial building Thursday night after the first day's soliciting, reported a total of $12,000.22 in subscriptions toward the goal of $24,000. This amount is needed for the maintenance of seven organizations engaged in welfare work in the city.

Each year the contributions obtained by the shop teams and the executive committee are distributed equally among the eight general teams. Last night each team was credited with $350 from the shop team and $650 from the executive committee.

This brought the total raised by the teams Thursday to $11,801. In addition to this amount, the school team, organized for this first time this year, reported a total of $199.22.

SAFETY ADDRESS MADE BY MAYOR

Urges Care In Home As Well As In Autos; Lauds Club

A plea to the individual citizen for cooperation in all safety movements was issued by Mayor Phil G. Hiddleson in an address at the State theater Thursday night. Hiddleson appeared at the theater to take charge of awarding of an occasion marking the close of the "safety week" held in Salem and Columbiana county for the past period.

"Don't look out for the other fellow; take care of yourself in automobile driving and all other affairs in which you may be involved. The matter of careful driving is an individual problem and if every driver takes utmost precautions to assure his own safety, accidents will be at a minimum," Hiddleson stated.

"This safety week," he added, "should however, not apply merely to motoring. It should be brought before the entire public the great number of fatalities resulting each year from carelessness on part of some person. In the home, at business, everywhere a new movement should be begun by every person to make Salem a safe and sane community."

He described unique traffic cases being brought to his attention in the mayor's court, and the ignorance concerning safety problems shown by many drivers. The Columbiana County Motor club was congratulated for the successful campaign.

William Filson and J. E. Whalen, of Salem received memberships in the motor club, and Dr. Edwin A. Cole and William Reynolds were awarded $1,000 life insurance policies.

THE HALF WAY MARK

Reaching the half way mark in their campaign to raise $24,000 for the Community Chest, gave team workers and executives encouragement at the end of their first day's labors to go out today to complete the task by tonight. And the spirit of service shown by these volunteers, strengthened by the spirit of giving demonstrated throughout the city, will lead them to victory.

Subscriptions to the Community fund are not charity. They are an investment in community welfare and personal happiness. They will bring no direct monetary profit. The original investment will be irretrievably lost, but there will be a high rate of interest. The interest will be the advantage of living in a community where the weakest members of the group are cared for by the strongest members. It is a fine principle to keep alive under conditions of living which make the majority of individuals feel that they are entirely self sufficient. There are thousands of cases in which the most extreme hardship is endured within arm's reach of the greatest luxury. The community fund is an opportunity to reach out a hand of comfort to the unfortunates of society through the carefully planned directions of organized society.

The children of any community are its greatest wealth. They are the sources of all future enterprise and investment. Upon their character rests the success or failure of the group. Community welfare organizations, operated from funds raised through the community fund campaign, do most of their work with family groups, which are the best character training foundations. These organizations not only give financial aid, but they teach beneficiaries how to help themselves. They give the personal touch which makes money humanly significant. They keep families together by salvaging wrecks and constructing stronger structures for faltering family ties.

Salem residents have supported the Community Chest in previous years with their time, their money and their interest. They are supporting it again this year, because they know that welfare work has become as much a part of civic machinery as the police and fire departments, or the city government.

THE AMBULANCE CASE

The more one hears about this city ambulance storage proposition, the more he wonders just why the ambulance was ever taken from its storage place on city property. Perhaps there was a reason, but it certain couldn't be for the best interests of the city. Mr. Grate's suggestion that a fire truck would be of more service in the factory district than a police ambulance is quite sound. And had this ambulance been in its proper place no delay would have occurred before taking the stricken man from Depot st. to a hospital. In this connection, it should be remembered that the owner of a private ambulance arrived at the scene in good time after he was called. He was in no way responsible for the delay.

What Others Say

GENERAL LORD'S RETIREMENT

It may have required a man of General Dawes' dynamic and colorful personality to start the wheels of the then newly created bureau of the budget to grinding but when he stepped out he was able to leave with the knowledge that the post of command was filled by one whose enthusiasm and zest for the prosaic task of saving money would keep them grinding, and grinding small. Brigadier General H. M. Lord, who is about to leave the government after a service of more than thirty years, the last seven of which were spent as the second director of the bureau of the budget, will enter private business with the satisfaction of knowing that his efforts contributed largely toward solid establishment of the budget system in the federal government and that he taught the army of federal employes the lesson of saving public money and made them like it.

General Lord's administration has been notable for several things: His marked ability as a financier dealing wisely with great problems. His tact and diplomacy in wielding the blue pencil on the enthusiastic estimates submitted by the various heads of federal establishments resulted in a lack of friction that was more marked because of the many opportunities for the exercise of arbitrary power that are characteristic of his office. And his ability to dramatize and give verbal picturesqueness to the dull work of squeezing pennies enabled him to enlist the cooperation of thousands of minor public officials and employes, to make them feel that whatever savings they could effect, no matter how small, were valuable contributions to good government and efficient spending.

He will be missed as the director of the budget, but the hundreds of members of his "Woodpeckers' " club and "Two Per cent." club and various other mythical organizations will feel a distinct personal loss in the resignation of their honorary president and founder.—Washington Star.

For Saturday, May 25

THE planetary influences for this day must be intrepreted as more or less conflicting. While there may be some substantial recognition of work well done, especially at the hands of elderly persons or institutions, and while new projects may well be launched, yet there is foreshown a degree of friction, conflict and possible misrepresentation, fraud or furtive dealings or scheming, particularly in connection with writings, letters or documents. With wise judgment and self-control, the propitious auguries may be assisted to operation. Personal affairs may thrive.

Those whose birthday it is may have a year of substantial returns for fidelity and industry, with the assistance of elders, into desirable new projects, but there is some menace of fraud, misrepresentation and hostility, precipitated by rash and tempestuous moves, unless proper discretion be exercised. Be careful with all manner of writings. Personal affiliations bring happiness.

A child born on this day may be industrious and clever, but may be prone to scheming and fraud unless properly trained in probity and honor.

For he who is honest is noble, whatever his fortunes or birth.
—Alice Carey.

HARD WATER PLUS MEL'O MAKES SOFT WATER
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Soften hard water with Melo and see how easy the dishes are to wash

HARD water combines with soap to make scum. Scum leaves a dirty ring around the dishpan. Scum leaves a dirty glaze on dishes. But put a tablespoonful of Melo in the dishpan! Then see!

No scum! Sparkling dishes! The water delightfully soft and sudsy! Use Melo wherever you want soft water. It makes the soap more effective. With or without soap, water softened with Melo is an unusual cleaner. Get it at your grocer's.

GOOD DIET ESSENTIAL IN CASES OF ANEMIA

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
(United States Senator from New York)

There are two forms of anemia. In both we find a deficiency in the red corpuscles of the blood, and also in the amount of hemoglobin.

Hemoglobin is a pretty big word. This is the substance that gives color to the blood. Without it the health-giving function of the blood is interfered with seriously.

Since the agents which give color to this fluid are decreased in anemia, we can understand why the skin is so pale. It explains why the lips have not that rosy tint which the person with normal health should possess.

It makes no difference what type of anemia the patient has, there will be loss of strength and vigor. The pulse will be rapid, and frequent palpitation of the heart may disturb the victim. The breathing is rapid, the digestion poor, and the sleep disturbed.

Headache and dizziness are other symptoms. Frequent fainting is not uncommon. Neuralgia pains are felt here and there.

Most of the cases of anemia with which we have to deal are secondary. That is they are the result of undernourishment, insufficient food, chronic inflammation of the stomach, or a serious disease of some part of the body.

Sometimes the poisons from malaria or another disease may sap the good qualities of the blood. There are certain mineral poisons which have this effect.

Primary anemia is a different condition. We do not find it associated with any other ailment. It seems to come on of its own accord.

While there is a difference of opinion about it, "pernicious anemia" is sometimes given as an example of primary anemia. In any event, it is a serious ailment.

I need not point out that fresh air, sunlight, plenty of rest and sleep and good diet are essential to the cure. Search is made for any underlying source of infection. Particular attention must be paid to a form of anemia occurring in young women sometimes called the "green sickness," or chlorosis.

I have no desire to draw a distinction between the various types of anemia. My aim today is to speak particularly of the necessity of a liberal diet in these cases.

It is important to give a diet rich in iron. That is the reason why liver and muscle meat are desirable. Green vegetables, fruits, sweet potatoes, lima beans and egg yolk are valuable additions to the diet. Very little fat should be given.

I am frequently asked why fat should be restricted. Many authorities feel that it has a destructive effect upon the blood. Likewise, it is found that digestion is improved when the fats are limited in quantity. On this account, fried food and bacon are not to be recommended. Even butter and cream should be restricted.

I have no doubt that the ultra-violet light has an important place in the treatment of anemia. In my judgment the time will come when much more attention will be given to this agent. Those who have made use of it are convinced that there is a definite improvement in cases of anemia by regular exposure to the ultra-violet rays.

Phoenix Hosiery

No wonder the new Phoenix stockings are more shapely and flattering. First they are patterned after the measurements of legs which Ziegfeld says are the loveliest in America. Next they are woven with the aid of a new device, the Accurator, which produces perfect knitting. And lastly, the Phoenix colors are so delicate and subtle that they give both wearer and costume quantities of chic. Don't miss seeing the new Suntan, Sunburn and Complexion shades.

TITANIC BATTLE OVER RAILROAD SET FOR JUNE 5

Taplins, Van Sweringens Array Forces For Control Fight

Washington, May 24.—A titanic battle for the possession of a railroad will be fought here on June 5 before the interstate commerce commission.

The prize is the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad, a 512-mile line extending between Toledo, Cleveland and Wheeling. The contestants are two sets of Cleveland Brothers—O. P. and M. J. Van Sweringen and F. E. and Charles F. Taplin. Both groups are militant, and a battle royal for a rich prize in prospective consolidation plans is expected.

The Van Sweringens, through their Nickel Plate road, have applied to the commission for authority to acquire the Wheeling and Lake Erie through purchase of capital stock. To finance it, they are seeking authority to issue and sell 67,333 shares of common and a like amount of preferred of the nickel plate.

File Application Also

The Taplins have also filed an application to acquire the Wheeling as a completment to their Pittsburgh and West Virginia system.

The powerful influence of the New York Central and the Baltimore and Ohio will be arrayed on the side of the Van Sweringens in their effort to get the Wheeling and Lake Erie. The Wabash, said to be controlled by the Pennsylvania system, has been permitted to intervene in opposition to the Van Sweringen proposal. Other interests not yet disclosed, are expected to line up on one side or the other.

In the meantime the government has stepped in to find out something, about the legality of Wheeling & Lake Erie stock holdings by the Allegheny corporation one of the Van Sweringens holding companies. The interstate commerce commission, at the instance of Attorney General Mitchell is making an investigation. The commission is understood to have held a conference yesterday on the subject but failed to reach any conclusion. Further conferences will be held this week, it was indicated.

B. & O. Sells Stock.

When the commission ordered the Baltimore & Ohio, New York Central and Nickel Plate to divest themselves of their holdings each of 17 percent in Wheeling & Lake Erie stock, the two former roads sold their holdings to the Van Sweringens' Allegheny corporation, the Nickel Plate retaining its holdings, after asking the commission for a stay in its order for divestment. No action has yet been taken on the Nickel Plate's motion for a stay.

The Taplin Brothers are said to hold 41 percent of Wheeling & Lake Erie stock and they are wrangling in Cleveland with the Van Sweringens for control of the board of the Wheeling.

CIVIL WAR IN CHINA PROBABLE

Suspension of Marshal To Bring Hostilities, Is Belief

London May 24.—With Marshal Feng-Yu-Hsiang war lord of central China expelled from the Kuomintang National Political party, actual hostilities between his forces and the Nationalist troops of President Chiang-Kai-Shek are now but a matter of days, according to a Shanghai dispatch to the London Times today.

In dismissing Feng from the party, the Central Executive committee deprived him of membership in the supreme political body of the state, the council of the Central Executive committee. The committee The committee ordered a punitive expedition against him.

Unless some truce is arranged, the Civil War will likely begin in earnest immediately after the ceremonies in connection with the reburial of Sun Yat Yat-Sen, founder of the Chinese Republic which are to take place in Nanking on June 1.

Reports that hostilities have already broken out in Honan Province are officially denied a Peking message to the paper declares.

POOL ARGUMENT CAUSES KILLING

Victim Is Shot Nine Times As He Offers To Shake Hands With Man In Controversy

Cleveland, May 24.—Shot nine times as the result of an argument over a pool game, Joseph Tolaro, 23, died in St. Luke's hospital here today.

One suspect was arrested and has signed a statement confessing the killing, according to police. The reported confession says that Tolaro and the suspect quarreled in a pool room and the latter went home and obtained a revolver.

Tolaro walked past in the street and offered to shake hands and make up, the statement says, but the man under arrest replied "it's too late," and began shooting at him.

Tolaro's brother, James' found him mortally wounded in the street near his home. He carried him to his room and called a doctor who rushed the wounded man to the hospital where he died later.

AIR MARKERS TO COVER NATION

New York, May 24.—The Daniel Guggenheim fund for the promotion of aeronautics today announced plans for launching a campaign that should have far-reaching effects in the development of American aviation.

An effort will be made to have every city town and hamlet in all parts of the United States "air-marked" so that both commercial and military flyers can be sure of their whereabouts at all times, when in flight.

Lady Relates How Modern Medicine Relieved Her of Stomach And Kidney Troubles

MRS. ANN SNURR

"Konjola beats all the other medicines I ever heard of," said Mrs. Ann Snurr ,1211 Girard Street, Toledo.

"For a long time I had no end of trouble with my stomach and liver, until Konjola put an end to it. Everything I ate caused gas, and I was subject to belching spells. I was short of breath, my heart palpitated and I was subject to bilious attacks, dizziness and nausea. My complexion was yellowish.

"I tried Konjola and you can imagine my pleasure and surprise when I began to notice improvement almost from the start. My indigestion was restored, and I can eat without unpleasant after effects. Gone is the gas—the bloating—the belching spells. My strength is rapidly coming back, now that I can eat a real meal and get proper rest at night. My liver is functioning perfectly, and my body has been cleansed of poisons and impurities. Konjola is wonderful."

Konjola is sold in Salem at J. P. Lease D. S. (Mr. Kaminsky) and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

SENTENCE

As soon as the verdict was returned Judge John W. Butcher sentenced Carl to confinement in the reformatory at Greendale until he becomes 21 years old.

Transfer of the boy to Greendale was ordered postponed, however, pending a decision on the appeal.

New York, May 24.—Amazement was expressed here today by judges, sociologists and criminologists that anywhere in the United States a jury could be obtained which would convict a 6-year-old boy of manslaughter, as has just happened in Kentucky.

Could this boy, of the kindergarten age, have realized the enormity of the offense? Does society demand of such a child the same penalty and criminal branding that would be given to a fully developed adult?

"No!" is the emphatic answer from New York, where officials gen the verdict.

"It is inconceivable that a 6-year-old child could be treated in this manner anywhere in our great civilized nation," declared George R. W[illegible]ington, a member of the po[illegible] department's newly-appointed crime commission. "Under the law a boy is an infant until 7 years of age. The verdict should shock the conscience of most people. A child under 16 should be dealt with in a juvenile court."

WELFARE DRIVE

spirit of giving had made the first day's work much easier than in former years.

Although the half way mark was reached the first day, Atty. L. P. Metzger, "Nestor" of the executive committee, as he was dubbed by Chairman Brooks, urged the teamworkers on to greater efforts in the final day's campaign. About 75 percent of the territory was canvassed the first day and he warned that it might be difficult to reach the goal unless all worked diligently.

Several Speak

Metzger called on Mrs. W. H. Dunn, who told of the work in other cities, where contributions were sought only for the hospital. George M[illegible]or, R. W. Hawley and W. L. Stu[illegible] spoke briefly about the work of the campaign and Miss Natalie Sharpnack told of the work in the schools.

The campaign will be closed tonight, when teamworkers will meet at the Elks home, instead of the Memorial building, to submit final reports.

GRAF ZEPPELIN BACK IN PORT

Air Giantress Returns To Friedrichshaven Under Four Motors

Friedrichshafen, May 24.—After a flight which the passengers described as nothing other than a "joy-ride", the giant German dirigible Graf Zeppelin landed here at 5:09 this morning from Cuers Pierrefeu, France.

No untoward incident marred the voyage, which was made under the command of Dr. Hugo Eckener. Four motors were used.

The Zeppelin arrived over the hangar here shortly after 3:30, but it was an hour and a half before the ground crew was entirely assembled and complete arrangements made for the landing. The great ship was brought down to earth without any difficulty whatever and was safely lodged in her shed.

SUSPECT HELD IN DEATH CASE

Valuables Belonging To Recluse Are Reported Missing; No Name Given By Police

Pomeroy, O. May 24.—Authorities investigating the death of Wilson Gilkey, 35-year-old recluse, who was found shot to death here Monday, are today holding a suspect in connection with the murder.

The man, whose name would not be learned, is said to be from West Virginia and he was arrested after police discovered that a large sum of money and other valuables which Gilkey was supposed to have owned were missing.

MIMIC WAR

near Hellow Springs' Ohio, late Monday when his plane crashed.

The first death in the air maneuvers occurred last Saturday in a midair crash over North Columbus. Second Lt. Edward L. Meade, of Rockwell Field, Calif. met instant death and second Lt. Andrew F. ("Fred") Solter, also of the Pacific coast field was burned when he made a parachute leap to safety.

The 11-day mock war entered its closing stages today.

Intense fighting was reported from the battlefront, where the Blue (Dayton) army was pushing hard against the Red Army, which is defending its stronghold, Columbus.

Columbus which was expected to fall into the enemy's hands sometime yesterday, still was immune from that army today the Red having successfully repulsed the attack.

The entire west side of that city has been destroyed, however. In the fighting yesterday the Griggs dam above the city was bombed after a second attempt of the Blue air forces. This unloosened more than 2,000,000,000 gallons of water on the city.

Artillery Is Used

Coupled with heavy artillery barrages, that portion of Columbus was a scene of ruins today.

Officials of the Blue army are confident that they will take Columbus today.

The front line, which originally was at Big Darby Creek, 15 miles west of Columbus, is almost at the outskirts of the city today.

Due to bad flying weather of early morning, aerial attacks were not made, and the maneuvers in the skies were at a standstill today.

Today is to be the last of the war. Armistice will probably be signed tonight.

YOUTH KILLED STEALING GAS

Pellet From Shotgun of Wealthy Man Ends Life Of 19-Year-Old

Coldwater Mich., May 24—Leland Grange, 19-year-old farm boy of Davis City, Iowa, was fatally wounded by Sigmund L. Wing, wealthy resident of this city today, in an alleged attempt to pilfer gasoline from Wing's automobile.

Wing said he fired a shotgun charge in the air to frighten the boy away. One of the pellets, however, penetrated the boy's skull and lodged in his brain. Grange died a few minutes later in Wade Memorial hospital here.

William Cooper, of Lamoni, Ia., Grange's companion, was taken into custody while another companion, B. B. Bowen, also of Lamoni, escaped.

Cooper told police the boys were enroute to Ann Arbor seeking employment.

Contempt Charges In Divorce Action

Lisbon, May 24—John Calhoun of East Liverpool, defendant in a divorce action filed against him by his wife Phoebe Calhoun has been cited to appear before Judge W. F. Lones next Monday for the purpose of showing cause why he should not be punished for contempt Calhoun has failed to obey an order of alimony issued by the court. At the time the trial of this case recently, a decree was refused the plaintiff, but Calhoun was ordered then to support his wife and children.

On the grounds of gross neglect of duty a divorce decree has been obtained by Freda Smith against her husband James D. Smith, and upon the payment of the costs. The custody of a minor daughter has been awarded Mrs. Smith.

A divorce has been granted Lillian V. Cox against her husband William Cox on the grounds of wilful absence for over a period of three years. The plaintiff has been restored to her maiden name, that of Lillian V. Johnston.

Although they were married Aug. 8, 1927 at Alliance, Thelma McLaughlin in a divorce petition filed against her husband by Attorney G. J. Clark of East Liverpool declares that her husband choked her 22 days later. The petition also charges the defendant with habitual drunkenness, and by reason of this fact he has been guilty of gross neglect of duty. McLaughlin is now said to be residing at Stillwater, Mich., and refuses to provide a home for the plaintiff. In addition to a decree Mrs. McLaughlin asks the court to restore her to her maiden name, that of Thelma Nall.

Jury Gives Verdict

A jury in common pleas court has returned a verdict in favor of the defendant in the suit of Abe Schoenbach against W. W. Holt, both parties being residents of Wellsville. The plaintiff sued to recover $445 claimed to be due him on account of the wreck of a truck in an automobile accident. The case was submitted to the court and jury without argument on the part of counsel.

Publication Ordered

An order of publication for the unknown heirs has been entered by the court in the partition petition filed by May Elwonger against Ida C. Kimmerle and others.

Sale Confirmed

A sale has been confirmed, a deed ordered and a decree of distribution entered in the case of Lena Breakstone against Benjamin Warnikoff and others. The action was filed for the purpose of having a mortgage cancelled. Following a trial of the issues, there was a finding for the defendant, and a decree of foreclosure entered the record. The case has been pending since June 13, 1927.

Leave To File Granted

Leave to the defendant to file pleadings by June 15 has been granted by the court in the case of Sam Guitone against the Scottish Union & National Ins. Co. In this case the plaintiff seeks to recover a claim of $925, said to be due him on an insurance policy.

PRINCIPAL RAPS SCHOOL HAZING

Senior Has Arm Broken Attempting To Escape From Classmen Who Plan Ducking Him

Fremont, O., May 24.—Principal J. E. Bohn, of Fremont Hib school today issued orders that "hazing" at the school must stop.

For the past few days, reports say, junior students have been capturing unsuspecting seniors and tossing them into the newly-completed basin of the stand pipe park fountain.

Matters were brought to a climax last night when Walter Strohl, 16, who will be graduated from the school tonight, had his arm broken as he ran against a tree in attempting to escape a mob of juniors.

The outbreak has been the first hazing here in years.

Angered, Principal Bohn today ordered the junior-senior "war" to stop.

had attempted to attack her in the Columbus boarding house where, it is charged by the defense, the ex-dry agent had taken the girl to live.

Miss Engler answered, "He came into my bedroom and I covered up my head with the covers and he tried to pull them off my head. I ordered him to leave when he forced his attentions upon me."

No Fear For Life

She denied that she had told Little she feared for her life in Dover. Little, from the witness stand, declared he had taken the girl to Columbus for that reason.

Little, it is alleged, tried to obtain damaging evidence against Groh from the girl.

She declared that she was unable to tell him anything about the ex-mayor.

Another highlight in the trial was the testimony of Mrs. Groh who, under oath, declared that her from either Little or Cole. The wife husband had not taken any money of the former Dover official declared she had hidden nearby when the two ousted dry agents visited her husband at their home and allegedly bribed him with $50.

Eight Dayton residents were called to the witness box immediately after the defense started presentation of its case. Each in their turn swore they would not believe Little under oath. Two of the Daytonians charged that Little had passed two bad checks on them. Little countered this by declaring that he had stopped payment on the checks after issuing them.

The defense is plainly trying to show that the character of Little is such that he should not be believed on the witness stand, even though he is under oath.

FOURTEEN SALEM HIGH TRACKSTERS TO COMPETE IN STATE MEET

First Card Of Salem Lodgemen Should See Large Group Of Fans

Salem Elks inaugurate boxing into the warm weather sport menu of the city tonight with an embroglio classed with the best viewed or heard of in eastern Ohio in years. Thirty rounds of battling—a triple-windup of three eight-round affairs, and a six-round lidlifter—are all set, awaiting the gong.

Everything indicates a complete sellout, members of the lodge fight committee stated today, with only a few tickets remaining. All participants were scheduled to weigh in at the Memorial building at 5 this afternoon, and with the signing of Meyer Lichenstein for the main event in opposition to Steve O'Malley, the card will go through according to schedule.

With fingertips of each of the four pugilists slated for activities in the final bouts dangling close to the peer of their weight class, and much, apparently, depending on the outcome of their clashes this evening, the 1,000 onlookers who already have purchased ducats, will hardly see a tame affair. The O'Malley-Lichenstein Young Rudy-Rudy Thomas contests stack up as high as any pair of ring duels appearing on one card in a long period.

O'Malley Favored

O'Malley's steady aggressiveness is expected to carry him to a verdict over Lichenstein, an unknown Ohio fistiani. The semi is expected to be a battle between a pair of lads who are both willing to mix it and will be every equal to the main go.

Lichenstein is the latest addition to Jimmy Dunn's well known Cleveland stable of scrappers. Dunn threw a man into the same ring with O'Malley at Canton recently, none other than Louie D'Arco, who has seen better days, but as yet can toss mitts with some of the best, and D'Arco was given a bad trouncing. Lichenstein is rated far better though, than his stablemate, and it is almost certain that Dunn wouldn't risk sending him here unless he was sure that the Baltimore lad could give the Irishman a better scrap than D'Arco.

Good Preliminaries

The prelim and curtain-raiser by no means are weak spots in the night's program. Jimmy Engle has advanced to quite a height in the estimation of Youngstown gladhands, while Bobby Burns is spoken of highly by his own tutor, Reddy Mason, who brought Harry Greb from preliminary performances to a championship title.

No knockouts are expected, but they may come. Dunn is certain that his man will trim O'Malley; seeing O'Malley paste everything in the tri-state district about the ring for more than a year has made many believe he will not be licked for a while, but the Cleveland impressario is sure that he will meet his match tonight.

Thomas' manager is confident he can win the decision over Rudy—the whole card is marked by confidence of participants that they will annex a victory, and it may be that a kayo will be handed out in at least one scrap before the final gong is sounded.

Miami, Wesleyan Loom Formidable In Ohio Track And Field Contests; Champs In Action

Bishops Defending Title For Second Year In Row: Miami Strong

MIAMI and Ohio Wesleyan track men promise to lead the pack when the Buckeye track athletes gather at Ohio Wesleyan for the fourth annual Buckeye Intercollegiate Athletic conference track and field meet today and Saturday.

The Bishops are for the second consecutive year the defending track champions but on the basis of showings made to date are doped to lose to Miami this year by a narrow margin. Both teams are strong and "between them both should lick the platter clean" so far as first places are concerned.

Outstanding stars upon whom the Bishops and the "Big Red" will depend include some really brilliant performers. George Vossler, Franklin a junior at Miami, holds the shot put record and expects to break it this year. The same is true of Norman Scribner of Ohio Wesleyan in the discus.

Dwight Kane, Lancaster, Ohio Wesleyan senior, is one of the best hurdlers in the United States and won the national intercollegiate high hurdle championship in 1928.

Norman Lambacher, Independence, another Bishop star, has run the 100-yard dash in 9.8 and has a correspondnigly good record in the 220.

David Davis, Youngstown, Miami's all-around jumper, is the present Buckeye high jump champion and may annex top honors in the pole vault and broad jump also this year.

James Gordon, Cleveland, Miami's sophomore sensation, promises to be high individual point scorer of the Buckeye meet scoring in the 100, 220, and 440-yard dashes and running on the relay team. He stands a good chance to run the 440 at the Buckeye meet in the fastest time ever made in this event by an Ohio college sprinter.

Preliminaries in the Buckeye meet will start at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon and finals at 2 o'clock Saturday.

Five Red And Black Stars Leave Today For Early Contest

A squad of 14 Salem High track athletes will compete in the state interscholastic meet at Columbus, today and Saturday. Five members of the team left with Coach J. Morgan Ruffner at 7:30 this morning, for competition in this afternoon's prelims, the remaining nine being scheduled to make the trip with Coach Wilbur Springer late today.

Henry Reese, Ronald Hutchinson, Myron Whinnery, Frank Scott and Leonard Yates composed the quintet of early-starters. Bill Smith, Bob Van Blaricom, John Terry, Johnny Floyd, Glenn Whinnery, Harold Walker, Al Brantingham, Heston and Ed Beck will leave today.

Reese may enter the 220-yd. low hurdles, and also will run in the 880-relay with Yates, Whinnery and Hutchinson. Scott is entered in the 120-yd. high hurdles. First prelims involving Red and Black contenders are due to have started at 3:20 this afternoon.

Salem Entries

Smith, holder of the new Columbiana county discus mark, and Van Blaricon will compete in their crack event, with Terry entered in the shot. Brantingham and Walker are both in the mile run, while Heston and Beck are competitors for honers in the high jump and pole vault.

The crack mile relay quartet, with Floyd, Glenn Whinnery, Hutchinson and Yates, is scheduled to compete against the state's select list of relay teams this afternoon. Floyd is also entered in the running broad jump.

Chances for the Salemites to break into the scoring column are slight. Walker will be pitted against a great collection of runners who have negotiated the distance under 4.40, while records of other athletes indicate each of the other Red and Black representatives will also be outclassed.

Walker has the best chance of any of the group to score points, however, while Floyd may also uncork a good jump for a place in the distance jump.

"TWO WEEKS OFF"

Dorothy Mackaill and Jack Mulhall, co-stars of a score of silent and several synchronized feature pictures made their first co-starring talkie debut at the State theatre last night in "Two Weeks Off."

There is no slowing of action in "Two Weeks Off," the dialogue is just as speedy as the story and that includes no dull moments. Mulhall and Mackaill in combination never fail to amuse and this time they click at a new and accelerated rate.

As suggested by the title, the story centers around a summer vacation and its accompanying romance. Dorothy Mackaill, a clerk and Jack Mulhall, a plumber, go to the seashore for a good time. They meet and fall in love but Jack is mistaken for a motion picture actor and the plot somersaults on itself, leaving as funny a mixup as has ever been pictured.

The cast includes Gertrude Astor, Eddie Gribbin, Kate Price, Dixie Gay, Gertie Messenger, Jimmy Finlayson and Jed Prouty.

"THE JAZZ SINGER"

"The Jazz Singer" the Grand feature tonight, is the story of Jolson's own life, for he, too, like the Jack robin of the play, ran away from an orthodox home when a boy to follow the lure of the stage, and, like Jack, won fame and fortune on Broadway.

When on the heights the boy's soul is torn between love for the stage and for the woman of the stage, who has made possible his success, and love for the humble parents whose hearts still long for his return.

The cast is worthy of the star which is saying a great deal. Dainty May McAvoy plays brilliantly the part of the toe dancing lady who changed the course of his life. Warner Oland gives a magnificent portrayal of the father, for whose sake he returns to the Ghetto in the hour of his triumph.

Others in the cast are Eugenie Besserer as the mother, Otto Lederer as the importunate Uncle Moisha, Bobbie Gordon as the jazz singer when a child, Richard Tucker, Nat Carr, William Demarest, Anders Randolf and Will Walling.

"RED HOT SPEED"

The trials and tribulations of a young assistant district attorney who is conducting a campaign against speeders, only to fall in love with a chronic offender, a beautiful and wealthy girl, is the plot of "Red Hot Speed," the hilariously funny Universal comedy now showing at the Royal theatre.

Reginald Denny, star of the production portrays the role of the harassed district attorney while beautiful Alice Day appears as the chronic girl speeder.

The picture is one of the best the popular star has made in some time.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, May 24—Summer ensembles, like everything fair woman puts on her back these days have grown more elaborate and more and more feminine. There is no end to the variety of flounces and frills and furbelows which are trimming them, almost invariably in the back.

They consist, for the most part, like those of last year, of a long coat of black or navy crepe de Chine, crepe marocain, georgette, or other light-weight material, with a frock of printed crepe mousseline de soie or the like. The coat is simple in cut but has a large amount of work in the form of encrusted bands, tucks and pleats.

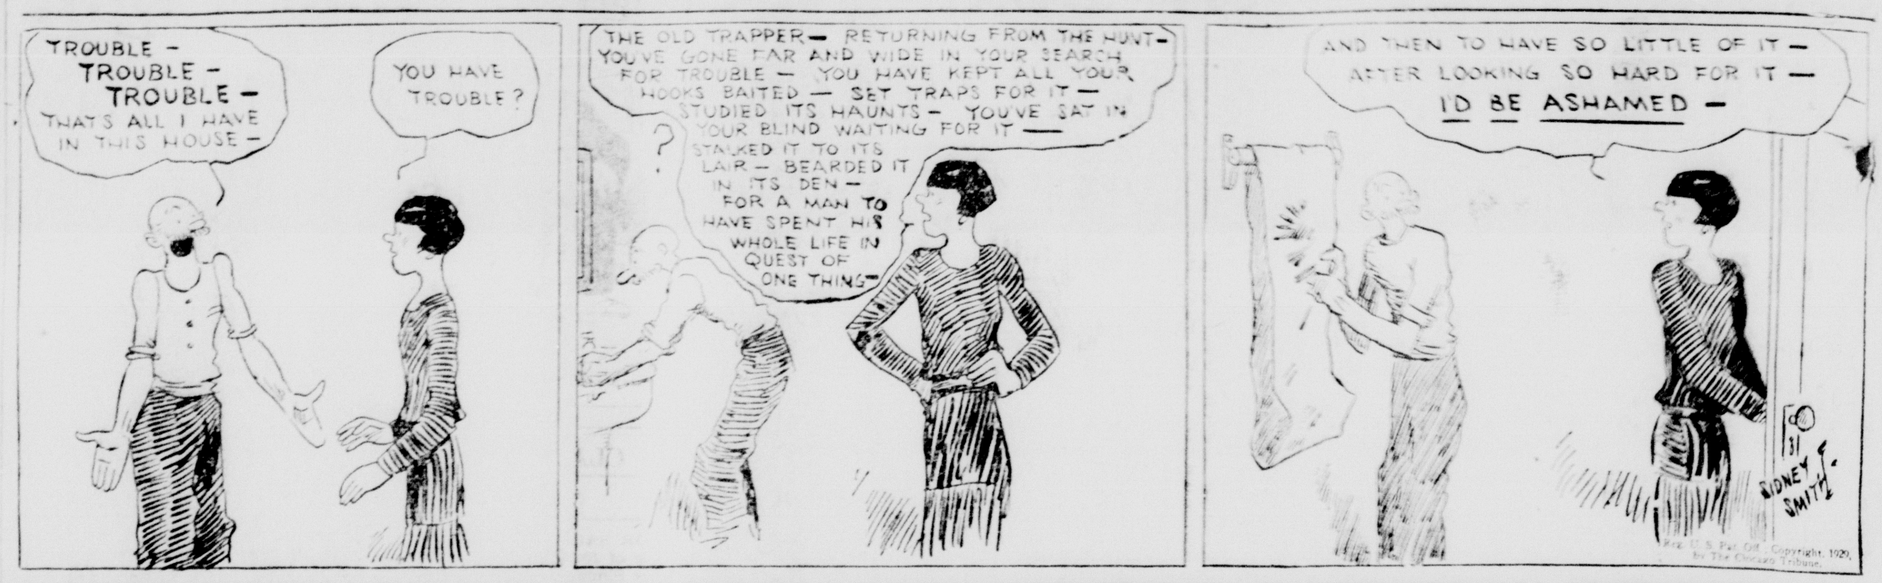

A charming ensemble of loose coat and ruffled frock in mousseline de soie is shown and another in beige chiffon with a lovely design of soft pinks and blue. It has one long tight sleeve and a cartight around the other arm. It will make a charming ensemble for the summer garden-party.

A very smart ensemble for the older woman has a long coat of black crepe de Chine, lined with the same material in a striking printed patern of black and white, with a bodice of the same and tight kerchief girdle worn over the black crepe de Chine skirt.

Another in black and white which is always smart has a long coat of the black crepe de Chine, the back of which is cut in three overlapping curving tiers, lined with white and a frock which has a long tunic cut in the same curving line at the bottom.

The black and white idea is used for a long sleeve-less jacket faced with black velvet worn over a frock on princess lines with a row of black buttons in front and little standing frill of white organdie around the neck.

THE GUMPS—THE EMPTY GAME BAG

THE HOME KITCHEN
By Jeannette Young Norton

I lunched downtown yesterday in a tearoom noted for its exceptionally good food, and much patronized by business men. Especially luscious was the strawberry pie, with its fresh, fragrant flavor and the crisp, flaky crust. And I was much amused at observing that several men within eye's reach carefully scooped out the fruit and left the crust. Didn't so much as taste it. Just force of habit. Sad experience has impressed them with the general sogginess of pie crust and its total inedibility. Now they don't even give it a trial!

Pie is supposed to be eaten, crust and all—which may be news to many who have permanently labeled pie as "indigestible." If the crust is properly prepared and adequately chewed, a fruit pie is just as wholesome as cake and stewed fruit. Nor is it difficult, if you know the rules and follow them scrupulously.

First, use good, fresh shortening.

Second, have all the ingredients cold.

Third, bake in a moderate oven, from 45 to 50 minutes. (Many cooks keep the oven at top heat, in the belief that pies should be baked very fast. The result is a slight burning on the outside and a state of rawness within!) Here is a simple recipe for pie crust, sufficient for one large pie with top as well as bottom crust:

2 cups of flour
½ cup shortening
½ cup cold water
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon baking powder.

Sift flour, salt and baking powder together, together. Chop in shortening with a knife, so that it forms little crumbs. Add water, then cut in half and toss on a lightly floured board. Roll into a round shape, but handle as little as possible at this point. In fact, good piemakers roll only twice—once when tossed on the board, then fold over and roll into shape for placing immediately into greased pie plate. Keep in a cold place until ready to bake.

Berry Pie

Strawberries, blackberries, blueberries, cherries, raspberries, when fresh, make delicious pies. Mix together two cupfuls of cleaned berries with two tablespoons of flour, three-quarters cup of sugar and a dash of salt. Put into the lined pie plate. Cut two tablespoons of butter into bits, place on top, then cover with the top crust and bake.

The top and bottom edges of the pie are fastened together by dipping a fork in cold water and pressing along the edges. But plenty of the paste should be allowed to extend beyond the edges of the plate, because the dough will shrink somewhat in baking. Also the top crust should be punctured with a few thrusts of the fork before the pie is set in oven, so that there is an outlet for the steam, and the juice will not run out at the sides.

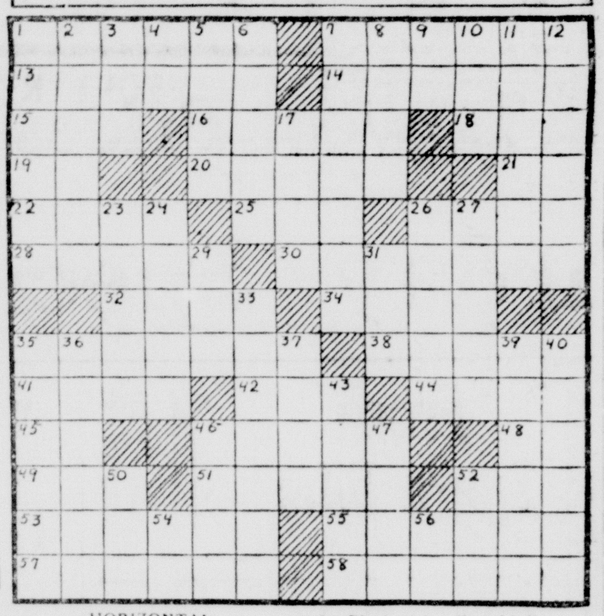

Meringue

Some people prefer a meringue to a top crust. This is added to pie after it is finished cooking:

2 egg whites
4 tablespoons sugar
½ teaspoon vanilla.

Beat the egg whites stiff, gradually add the sugar and vanilla continuing the beating. Spread over the pie, and set under a moderate flame. Watch it. A meringue should color a golden brown slowly, taking about eight minutes.

What Will you do

When your Children Cry for It

There is hardly a household that hasn't heard of Castoria! At least five million homes are never without it. If there are children in your family there's almost daily need of its comfort. And any night may find you very thankful there's a bottle in the house. Just a few drops, and that colic or constipation is relieved; or diarrhea checked. A vegetable product; a baby remedy meant for young folks. Castoria is about the only thing you have ever heard doctors advise giving to infants. Stronger medicines are dangerous to a tiny baby, however harmless they may be to grown-ups. Good old Castoria! Remember the name and remember to buy it. It may spare you a sleepless, anxious night. It is always ready, always safe to use, in emergencies, or for everyday ailments. Any hour of the day or night that Baby becomes fretful, or restless. Castoria was never more popular with mothers than it is today. Every druggist has

Air Troop Trains For British Empire

London, May 24.—Aerial troop trains, able to carry 200 soldiers at a speed of 90 to 100 miles an hour to the remotest corners of the British Empire, will soon become part of the equipment of the British Air Force.

For some time past 25-seater machines have been successfully in use. It was twin-engined Vickers-Napier planes of this size which were brought from Irak to carry out the evacuation of Kabul when that city was the center of the rebellion against King Amunallah.

But already these machines have become "obsolescent" according to the Air Force—which means that as soon as a sufficiency of the new craft are ready those in present use will be discarded.

Everything in the new machines will be fashioned of steel, for the aircraft manufacturers have learnt the secret of distributing stresses and strains so that the all-metal plane is actually lighter by as much as 20 per cent than if it had been made of the old fashioned wood and fabric.

Music Festival Soon

Boston, May 24. — One of the greatest music festivals that Boston has ever known will be held here in June when the National Federation of Music Clubs, composed of 5,000 clubs from all parts of the country, holds its biennial convention here from June 8 to 17. Plans have been under way to make it the most elaborate musical program ever arranged by the national organization.

Delegates will be present from Arkansas, California, Colorado, Florida, Missouri, New Jersey, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin, New York and from all the New England states.

Real Estate Bar

St. Louis, May 24. — When the local police raided a real estate office here recently they found that two rooms in the rear of the real estate office fitted up as a bar and lunchroom.

Home brew and whiskey were seized.

MOVIES
In Playhouses Of Salem

"TWO WEEKS OFF"

Dorothy Mackaill and Jack Mulhall, co-stars of a score of silent and several synchronized feature pictures made their first co-starring talkie debut at the State theatre last night in "Two Weeks Off."

There is no slowing of action in "Two Weeks Off," the dialogue is just as speedy as the story and that includes no dull moments. Mulhall and Mackaill in combination never fail to amuse and this time they click at a new and accelerated rate.

As suggested by the title, the story centers around a summer vacation and its accompanying romance. Dorothy Mackaill, a clerk and Jack Mulhall, a plumber, go to the seashore for a good time. They meet and fall in love but Jack is mistaken for a motion picture actor and the plot somersaults on itself, leaving as funny a mixup as has ever been pictured.

The cast includes Gertrude Astor, Eddie Gribbin, Kate Price, Dixie Gay, Gertie Messenger, Jimmy Finlayson and Jed Prouty.

"THE JAZZ SINGER"

"The Jazz Singer" the Grand feature tonight, is the story of Jolson's own life, for he, too, like the Jack robin of the play, ran away from an orthodox home when a boy to follow the lure of the stage, and, like Jack, won fame and fortune on Broadway.

When on the heights the boy's soul is torn between love for the stage and for the woman of the stage, who has made possible his success, and love for the humble parents whose hearts still long for his return.

The cast is worthy of the star which is saying a great deal. Dainty May McAvoy plays brilliantly the part of the toe dancing lady who changed the course of his life. Warner Oland gives a magnificent portrayal of the father, for whose sake he returns to the Ghetto in the hour of his triumph.

Others in the cast are Eugenie Besserer as the mother, Otto Lederer as the importunate Uncle Moisha, Bobbie Gordon as the jazz singer when a child, Richard Tucker, Nat Carr, William Demarest, Anders Randolf and Will Walling.

"RED HOT SPEED"

The trials and tribulations of a young assistant district attorney who is conducting a campaign against speeders, only to fall in love with a chronic offender, a beautiful and wealthy girl, is the plot of "Red Hot Speed," the hilariously funny Universal comedy now showing at the Royal theatre.

Reginald Denny, star of the production portrays the role of the harassed district attorney while beautiful Alice Day appears as the chronic girl speeder.

The picture is one of the best the popular star has made in some time.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, May 24—Summer ensembles, like everything fair woman puts on her back these days have grown more elaborate and more and more feminine. There is no end to the variety of flounces and frills and furbelows which are trimming them, almost invariably in the back.

They consist, for the most part, like those of last year, of a long coat of black or navy crepe de Chine, crepe marocain, georgette, or other light-weight material, with a frock of printed crepe mousseline de soie or the like. The coat is simple in cut but has a large amount of work in the form of encrusted bands, tucks and pleats.

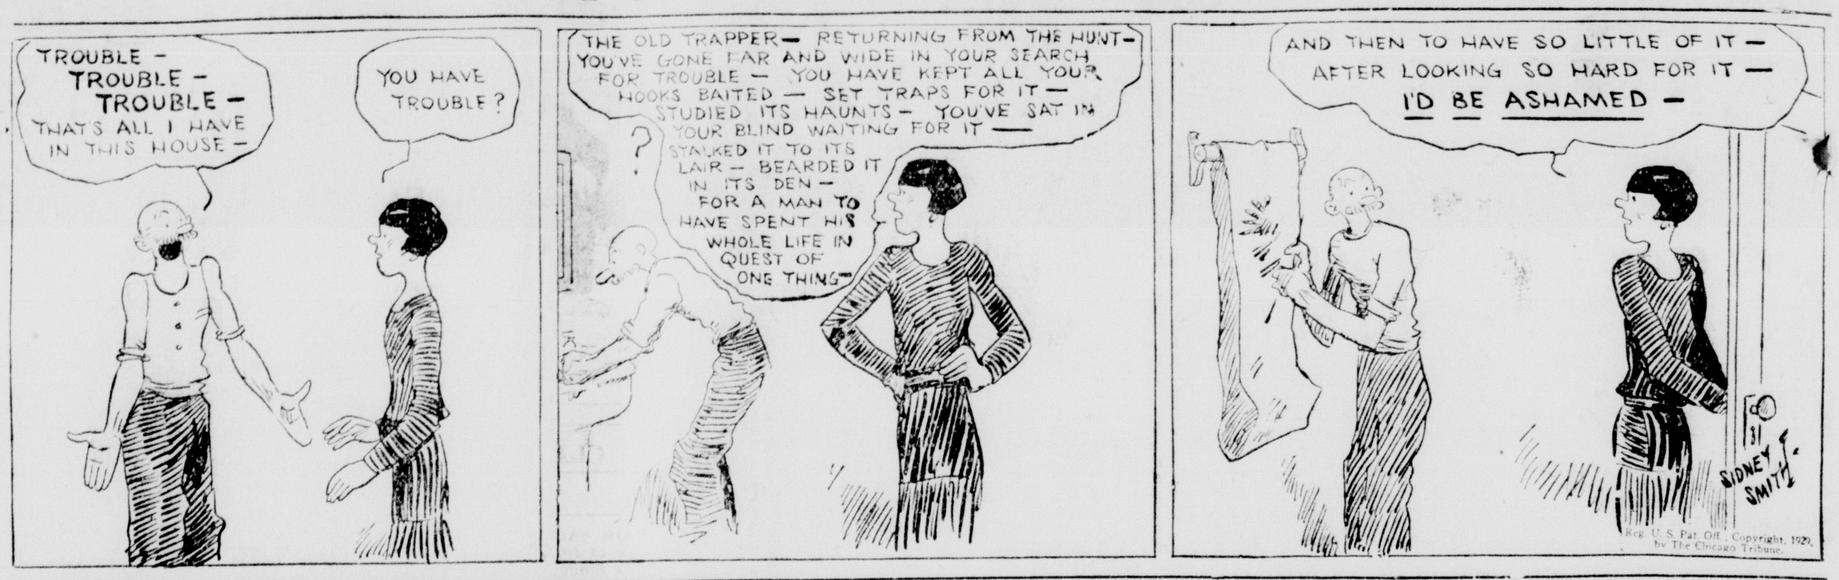

A charming ensemble of loose coat and ruffled frock in mousseline de soie is shown and another in beige chiffon with a lovely design of soft pinks and blue. It has one long tight sleeve and a cartight around the other arm. It will make a charming ensemble for the summer garden-party.

A very smart ensemble for the older woman has a long coat of black crepe de Chine, lined with the same material in a striking printed patern of black and white, with a bodice of the same and tight kerchief girdle worn over the black crepe de Chine skirt.

Another in black and white which is always smart has a long coat of the black crepe de Chine, the back of which is cut in three overlapping curving tiers, lined with white and a frock which has a long tunic cut in the same curving line at the bottom.

The black and white idea is used for a long sleeve-less jacket faced with black velvet worn over a frock on princess lines with a row of black buttons in front and little standing frill of white organdie around the neck.

THE GUMPS—THE EMPTY GAME BAG

THE HOME KITCHEN
By Jeannette Young Norton

I lunched downtown yesterday in a tearoom noted for its exceptionally good food, and much patronized by business men. Especially luscious was the strawberry pie, with its fresh, fragrant flavor and the crisp, flaky crust. And I was much amused at observing that several men within eye's reach carefully scooped out the fruit and left the crust. Didn't so much as taste it. Just force of habit. Sad experience has impressed them with the general sogginess of pie crust and its total inedibility. Now they don't even give it a trial!

Pie is supposed to be eaten, crust and all—which may be news to many who have permanently labeled pie as "indigestible." If the crust is properly prepared and adequately chewed, a fruit pie is just as wholesome as cake and stewed fruit. Nor is it difficult, if you know the rules and follow them scrupulously.

First, use good, fresh shortening.

Second, have all the ingredients cold.

Third, bake in a moderate oven, from 45 to 50 minutes. (Many cooks keep the oven at top heat, in the belief that pies should be baked very fast. The result is a slight burning on the outside and a state of rawness within!) Here is a simple recipe for pie crust, sufficient for one large pie with top as well as bottom crust:

2 cups of flour
½ cup shortening
½ cup cold water
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon baking powder.

Sift flour, salt and baking powder together together. Chop in shortening with a knife, so that it forms little crumbs. Add water, then cut in half and toss on a lightly floured board. Roll into a round shape, but handle as little as possible at this point. In fact, good pie-makers roll only twice—once when tossed on the board, then fold over and roll into shape for placing immediately into greased pie plate. Keep in a cold place until ready to bake.

Berry Pie

Strawberries, blackberries, blueberries, cherries, raspberries, when fresh, make delicious pies. Mix together two cupfuls of cleaned berries with two tablespoons of flour, three-quarters cup of sugar and a dash of salt. Put into the lined pie plate. Cut two tablespoons of butter into bits, place on top, then cover with the top crust and bake.

The top and bottom edges of the pie are fastened together by dipping a fork in cold water and pressing along the edges. But plenty of the paste should be allowed to extend beyond the edges of the plate, because the dough will shrink somewhat in baking. Also the top crust should be punctured with a few thrusts of the fork before the pie is set in oven, so that there is an outlet for the steam, and the juice will not run out at the sides.

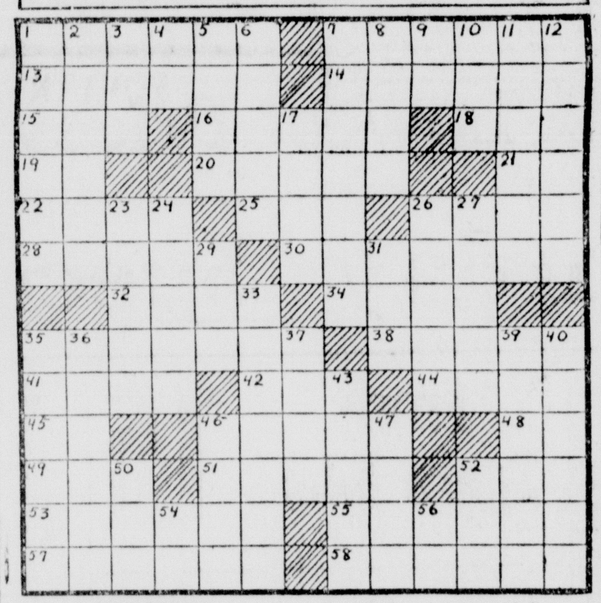

Meringue

Some people prefer a meringue to a top crust. This is added to pie after it is finished cooking:

2 egg whites
4 tablespoons sugar
½ teaspoon vanilla.

Beat the egg whites stiff, gradually add the sugar and vanilla continuing the beating. Spread over the pie and set under a moderate flame. Watch it. A meringue should color a golden brown slowly, taking about eight minutes.

When your Children Cry for It

There is hardly a household that hasn't heard of Castoria! At least ten million homes are never without it. If there are children in your family, there's almost daily need of its comfort. And any night may find you very thankful there's a bottle in the house. Just a few drops, and that colic or constipation is relieved; or diarrhea checked. A vegetable product; a baby remedy meant for young folks. Castoria is about the only thing you have ever heard doctors advise giving to infants. Stronger medicines are dangerous to a tiny baby, however harmless they may be to grown-ups. And old Castoria! Remember the name, and remember to buy it. It will spare you a sleepless, anxious night. It is always ready, always safe to use; in emergencies, or for everyday ailments. Any hour of the day or night that Baby becomes ailing, or restless. Castoria was never more popular with mothers than it is today. Every druggist has it.

Air Troop Trains For British Empire

London, May 24.—Aerial troop trains, able to carry 200 soldiers at a speed of 90 to 100 miles an hour to the remotest corners of the British Empire, will soon become part of the equipment of the British Air Force.

For some time past 25-seater machines have been successfully in use. It was twin-engined Vickers-Napier planes of this size which were brought from Irak to carry out the evacuation of Kabul when that city was the center of the rebellion against King Amunallah.

But already these machines have become "obsolescent" according to the Air Force—which means that as soon as a sufficiency of the new craft are ready those in present use will be discarded.

Everything in the new machines will be fashioned of steel, for the aircraft manufacturers have learnt the secret of distributing stresses and strains so that the all-metal plane is actually lighter by as much as 20 per cent than if it had been made of the old fashioned wood and fabric.

Music Festival Soon

Boston, May 24. — One of the greatest music festivals that Boston has ever known will be held here in June when the National Federation of Music Clubs, composed of 5,000 clubs from all parts of the country, holds its biennial convention here from June 8 to 17. Plans have been under way to make it the most elaborate musical program ever arranged by the national organization.

Delegates will be present from Arkansas, California, Colorado, Florida, Missouri, New Jersey, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin, New York and from all the New England states.

Real Estate Bar

St. Louis, May 24. — When the local police raided a real estate office here recently they found that two rooms in the rear of the real estate office fitted up as a bar and lunchroom.

Home brew and whiskey were seized.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

When you buy meat, above all don't buy the cheapest grade. If you do, you are likely to get a piece of a cow or old pork instead of tender, juicy beef or young pork which are raised and fed so as to give you digestible, wholesome food. There is such a vast difference in the various grades of meat that you will never buy the cheaper grade again if you but try, just once, the quality of meat we sell. After one trial order, you'll agree with us its better to have less and have it tender, sweet and juicy. Think it over. It's really food for thought.

Owa-Ton-Na Is Valuable Systemic Tonic

Aid Kidney, Liver, Stomach and Intestinal Disorders Proven In Thousands of Cases

Owa-Ton-Na will be found an invaluable aid in removing harmful poisons from the body after the flu, grippe or severe colds. It will aid nature in restoring normal function of the stomach, liver and kidneys, thus insuring proper assimilation of food which results in a speedy regaining of normal strength and return to normal health.

Among the many interesting cases of those who recommend Owa-Ton-Na is that of Mr. W. J. Walter, 8 W. Green Street, Salem, O. He says: "For two years I have been suffering with a bad case of constipation, indigestion, poor appetite, and a tired worn-out feeling. My kidneys were not acting normally. My back at times pained me terribly, and I was forced to get up several times at night to relieve my kidneys.

"This condition was getting gradually worse and rheumatism started to bother me. My joints pained me terribly at times and I guess I must have been pretty much run-down. When Owa-Ton-Na was recommended to me, I decided to give it a trial, and I want to say it is a good pure tonic and that I can recommend it to any one in poor health. It just seems to cleanse the system from top to bottom."

Owa-Ton-Na is a non-alcohilic herbal preparation for kidney, liver, stomach an dintestinal disorders, sold at Floding's, Bolger & French and J. H. Lease drug stores in Salem.—Adv.

Never Expected To Work Again

Well As Ever—Owes It All to World's Tonic

"When I went home from my work in the mill too sick to care, it was the result of a long series of troubles after having the flu. I never expected to go back to work," remarked Mr. Charles Briggs, employed at the big mill in Steubenville, Ohio. "For months I had been getting weaker, and none of the many medicines I tried gave me relief. I appeared to have a general breakdown. My stomach was sour all the time, and it formed gas that swelled me up and distressed me greatly.

"This affected my liver, which was sluggish most of the time. I had severe headaches and bilious spells. I would get so dizzy I feared to move around, as I was afraid I might fall into the hot steel and get burned or perhaps lose my life. My breath was bad, and I belched gas after every meal. Altogether I was very miserable and was losing weight. One of my buddies, who brought me home from the mill, urged me to try World's Tonic, the new medicine that he said was gathered from different parts of the world. Because I did not know what else to do, I let him have a bottle sent up from the drug store. If anybody had told me all it would do for me I would not have believed it.

"My headaches quit, my liver woke up to its job, and after a couple of weeks my stomach did its work again, now my bowels move regular three times every day. I slept well, and soon I began to gain weight. In just five weeks I felt as well as I ever did, and I went back to the job. Since then I have felt fine, and I owe it all to World's Tonic, the most wonderful medicine I have ever heard of."

World's Tonic can be obtained of J. H. Lease or of any other first class drug store. (A-92). Adv.

Changes Announced In Harvard Faculty

Cambridge, Mass., May 24.—Announcement was made at University Hall of the names of two of the three men who will fill the Harvard Dean's office vacancies left by the resignations of Assistant Deans Lawrence Coolidge, Mitchell Gratwick and William I. Nichols.

At the same time it was announced that G. G. Benedict, now assistante Dean in charge of Records, would be transferred to fill the position of Assistant Dean in charge of Sophomores and dropped Freshmen, and that L. C. Keyes would continue to act as assistant Dean in charge of Juniors and Seniors.

The two new arrivals at University Hall next year will be Henry Chauncey '28, of Columbus, Ohio, who will fill Mr. Gratwick's place as assistant Dean of one half of the Freshman class; the other Douglas Swain Byers, 25, of North Andover, Mass., who will replace Mr. Benedict in the Records office.

Fight Luxury Tax

Budapest, May 24 — Umbrella-makers in this little country are up in arms over the recent proposal to include the useful objects among those liable to a luxury tax. Twelve years ago 570,000 of the umbrellas used in Hungary were imported from foreign countries.

This number has now fallen to 13,000 which means that the makers are now able to provide 95 per cent of the rain or sun protectors used in the country.

Large Pilgrimage

Vancouver, B. C., May 24.—A religious pilgrimage of 1500 Britishers from the Old Land will invade the Dominion of Canada in June "to study the life and work of the Christian Church in Canada" according to plans now under way by the Free Church Council of Great Britain.

Word received here from the Rev. A. G. Sleep of the Colonial Missionary Society in London states that illustrated lectures have been distributed through the British Isles and the worshippers have enrolled from all parts of Great Britain.
